Dr. Smith's Lecture.
A large audience was in attendance at the High School building, last night, and listened to Dr. Smith's very interesting lecture on "A Drop of Water." The Doctor handled his subject skillfully and learnedly, imparting much information to his listeners. The conclusion of the lecture was beautiful and elicited a round of appreciative applause. Unfortunately the Doctor's voice was weak, and some of the audience, in the back part of the room, were unable to hear all that was said. Next Monday night, Dr. Brigham will lecture on the subject: "Evolution, if true, teaches neither Atheism nor Materialism."

A Hero.
Sunday afternoon, while an old gentleman was standing near the fire built by the skaters on the bank of the Mississippi, a young man named Patsy Laddy, dressed in his poking him in the ribs with his fist, and saying in a jovial tone: "How are you, old dog?" The old man did not like Patsy's greeting very well, but said nothing, and Patsy thought it was all right. But a big Dutchman, who is employed in hauling ice, thought that this was an insult to the old man, and seeing that no one else was going to take the matter in hand, he determined to do so himself. Accordingly, Germany made a break for Eddy, caught and gave him several hard blows with a heavy black-knack wagon whip, and then went back to his work as if nothing out of his ordinary line of business had transpired. The coolness of the Dutchman aroused the anger of a colored gentleman named Joe Johnson, who said that "that old beer guzzler ain't got no license to do no day, I tell you," whereupon the Dutchman, who had heard Joe's remark, went for the gentleman and gave him a dose of the same medicine that he had given Patsy. The thing was beginning to grow serious, and no one knew whose turn would come next, until a young man by the name of Warren, who had seen the whole transaction, said to one of his friends who was standing near: "I would like to know what right that big Dutchman has to take up for anyone else?" The Dutchman was just close enough to Warren to catch the meaning of his words, which he did not like. He had commenced the thing and he was going to carry it through. He advanced on Warren, and after giving him a warning, again resumed his work; and did not have occasion to leave his post again during the afternoon.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Monday, January 11, 1875.

On Sunday morning Judge Fitzgerald discovered a case of small pox among the inmates of the county jail, which fact being made known to Judge Baker, this morning the court was removed from the court house to the Arab engine house, where it met at two o'clock this afternoon. The traverse jury for this and the next week, was impaneled, and a trial docket made out for to-morrow.

—John Kelly, indicted at the last September term of the circuit court, came into court to-day and pleaded guilty to the charge of carrying concealed weapons. He was fined ten dollars and costs.

Oysters.
Fresh Baltimore oysters received daily and sold by Phil. H. Sapp. 599-11-20-1f

General Items.

—Paradise coal is the best in the market.
—Mound City has a dramatic club that the press of that city talk a great deal about, and pronounce very good.
—Potter, of the Mound City Journal, has been appointed circulating and engraving clerk of the Senate.
—The cold wave that struck the city last Friday night was a big thing of its kind—colder than the North pole.
—The Cornucopia club, of Mound City, are going to give a grand masquerade ball at Stokes' Hall, on Tuesday night, the 19th inst.

—There are now four cases of small pox in the pest house, three of whom it is thought will recover, and one for whom there is very little hope.
—Judge Baker has deserted the court house, on account of the small pox having broken out in the jail, and is now holding court in the Arab engine house.
—The finest quality of fresh fish can be found at Sprout & Son's. They receive them twice a week, Sunday and Thursday, and if you'll take our word for it, they are good eating.

—The congregations of all the churches of this city were much larger on last Sunday, both morning and evening, than on any previous occasion for more than eight weeks.
—The congregation at the Church of the Redeemer was unusually large on Sunday night, to listen to the Rev. Mr. Gilbert's sermon to the young men, which is said to have been a brilliant effort.
—Order Paradise coal—the best for cooking, grates or stoves.
—The brewers and ice packers generally, spent Sunday in cutting, hauling and storing away for summer use. The ice being put away by them for summer use is unusually clear, and from four to six inches thick.

—The ice on the Mississippi river afforded much sport to many of the young men and boys of this city last Sunday. The river was alive with them from early in the morning till late at night.
—We are informed that the board of school directors, under whose auspices the course of lectures are now progressing, have invited Mr. W. H. Morris to deliver a humorous lecture. Whether he will comply with their request we are unable to say.

—Mr. Huefner, proprietor of the Planters' house, gave another very pleasant party last night. A large number of friends were present, and participated in the dance, which was kept up till two o'clock. The refreshments offered to the guests, it is said were most delicious.

—A man called Newcomb, from Clear Creek precinct, who was confined in the county jail, was attacked with the small pox Sunday, and was removed to the pest house. We learn from Jailer Fitzgerald that the case is a bad one, and that in all probability the patient will die.
—Dr. Thayer is wanted over in Terre Haute, Indiana, to hold a discourse on "The Philosophy and Phenomena of Spiritualism." So a recent communication from that city informs him. The doctor is fond of making an occasional "excursion" in that line, and it strikes us that if he goes and opens out on them in his usual style, it will be decidedly lively over there.

—We are informed by Jailer Fitzgerald that Mr. William Johnson, the colored gentleman who stole an overcoat a few days ago, and is now confined in the county jail, is getting the small pox. Mr. Johnson is of the opinion that he is getting it, and is accordingly cheerful. He believes the disease will keep him out of the penitentiary. But it may get him into his grave.
—The ladies appointed by the Episcopal church to canvass the city and solicit aid for the purpose of purchasing a new library for their Sunday school, have succeeded in raising ninety dollars, which, added to the fund donated by the members of the church, will be an ample amount to buy an elegant assortment of books. The purchasing committee expect to have the new library ready for distribution in two weeks from next Sunday.

—It has been suggested by Odd-Fellows that a grand excursion and picnic on the Cairo and St. Louis railroad be gotten up by the members of that order in this city, and that invitations to participate be extended to all the lodges along the line of the road. The suggestion is offered at this early date in order that ample time for preparation may be had, as the weather will not allow any demonstration of this kind for months to come.

—On Tuesday evening last, at regular meeting of the Mound City Lodge No. 259, I. O. O. F., the following were the officers installed for the ensuing term: Wm. Wilson, Noble Grand; D. D. Harris, Vice-Grand; Wm. B. Booz, Secretary; and E. A. Hays, Treasurer. Closing of the business for disposal of the close of the year, the course of lectures was discontinued for the time being, and will be resumed on next meeting night, when it is hoped there will be a full attendance.

—The missionary services at the Methodist church, in Mound City last Sunday, were highly successful. Mrs. Gray addressed a large congregation morning and evening, and her efforts evidently were well received. A branch of the Woman's Foreign Mission society was organized, thirty-four persons joining. Mrs. A. W. Sprague was elected president; Mrs. R. A. Hawley, Mrs. J. A. Waugh, Mrs. W. L. Hamilton and Mrs. S. D. Beane, Vice-presidents; Mrs. S. F. Adams, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Lucinda Farr, recording secretary, and Mrs. Blake, treasurer.

—The next term of the Pulaski county circuit court will commence on the 15th of February. The following are the grand jurors summoned for the term: Ira Butler, Wm. Armstrong, G. W. Yeomum, G. W. Lingle, Mat. Bagby, Thos. Price, Gilbert Steers, Willis Edwards, Richard Johnson, G. F. Meyer, W. L. Hamilton, N. R. Casey, Frank Lyerly, Sam'l Steers, George G. Morris, George Mertz, Geo. Minnie, Joseph Essex, E. J. Ayers, Jonathan Crain, Israel Sanderson, Jas. S. Morris, Caleb Hoffman.

COMMERCIAL.

CAIRO, ILL., MONDAY EVENING, January 11, 1875.

We, in this section, are passing through the coldest "spell" of weather ever experienced in this latitude. The temperature last Friday night changed suddenly from 40 degrees above zero to fifteen below, and has held, with little variation, from 5 to 10 above for the last three days. The Mississippi is a solid sheet of ice from Cairo to St. Louis.

The blockade, has not, as yet, effected the market at this point any but a general forward movement may be expected at any time. Flour continues heavy and slow, with large stocks of choice and a scarcity of low and medium grades. Corn meal is scarce and active. Corn and oats rule very quiet, and not very heavy stocks. Buttermilk and eggs are plenty and dull. Poultry of all kinds is scarce and wanted. Receipts of grain for the last three days are as follows: Twelve cars corn, 18 cars oats, 4 cars wheat.

THE MARKET.
Our friends should bear in mind that the prices here given are usually for sale from first hands in round lots. In filling orders and for broken lots it is necessary to charge an advance over these figures.

FLOUR.
The market is heavy and dull all round. There is very little demand for anything. Low grades are scarce and in some demand. Choice is plenty and not wanted. We note sales 300 bbls, $4.50; 475; 300 bbls, $4.50 to $4.55; 300 bbls XX, $4.75; 200 bbls, $4.50 to $5.00; 300 bbls, $4.00 to $5.00; 525 bbls, City Mills, $4.25 to $5.00; 300 bbls, $4.50 to $5.00; 400 bbls, $4.50 to $5.00; 300 bbls, $4.50 to $5.00.

HAY.
Receipts are light and all kinds are scarce. The demand for medium hay, at about $18.00 of $19.00, is active, with very little offering. Sales were 2 cars mixed delivered, $18.00; 1 car choice timothy delivered, $21.00; 1 car choice timothy delivered, $22.00; 1 car choice mixed delivered, $20.50; 2 cars choice mixed, $20.00; 1 car ripe timothy delivered, $20.00; 2 cars choice timothy delivered, $21.00; 2 cars choice timothy delivered, $21.00.

CORN.
There is a good order but no shipping demand. Prices in New Orleans are so low, that speculators are off here. We note sales as follows: 1 car No. 2 white in sacks delivered 75c; 6 cars rejected in sacks delivered 75c; 2 cars No. 2 white in sacks delivered 75c; 1 car No. 2 white in bulk on track 60c; 2 cars No. 2 mixed in sacks delivered 75c; 3 cars No. 2 white in light sacks delivered 75c.

OATS.
The market holds firm and unchanged, but the demand is very small and the supply offering is limited. Sales were 1 car No. 2 mixed in sacks delivered, 65c; 5 cars No. 2 mixed in sacks delivered, 65c; 2 cars No. 2 mixed in sacks delivered, 65c; 2 cars No. 2 black in sacks delivered, 65c.

MEAL.
Receipts find ready sale at quotations. There are no supplies on the market. Prices are firm and unchanged. Sales of 200 bbls steam dried, $3.00; 100 bbls kiln dried, $3.00; 300 bbls, City Mills, $3.75.

BRAN.
The demand is greater than the supply. Receipts are small and are all taken on arrival; sales were 1 car in sacks, delivered, $20.00; 150 sacks delivered, $20.00.

BUTTER.
There is a small improvement in the demand, with no change in prices. Stocks of all kinds are very large. Sales were 300 lbs choice yellow Northern roll, 25c; 500 lbs choice white Northern roll, 25c; 200 lbs choice Southern Illinois roll, 25c; 22 bushels Southern Illinois packed, 22c; 700 lbs choice roll 20c; 500 lbs choice Northern roll, 25c.

EGGS.
The market is overstocked, and the demand is almost nothing. We note sales of 100 dozen 20c; 200 dozen 20c; 300 dozen 20c.

POULTRY.
There is a good demand for all kinds of dressed poultry, and some inquiry for live. There is none of either in market. We note sales of 200 lbs. dressed turkeys, 12c; 4 dozen dressed chickens $2.50; 3 dozen dressed chickens $2.50.

POTATOES.
The cold weather has a little difficulty to handle potatoes. Choice peach blaws are in active demand at quotations. Sales 50 bbls choice peach blaws $3.00; 25 bbls choice peach blaws, $3.00.

FRUIT.
The demand for fruits of all kinds is very small. Oranges are not wanted at any price. We note sales of 50 bbls choice apples, $3.25; 50 bbls common apples, $2.00; 25 bbls choice common to choice, $2.00 to $3.00.

PROVISIONS.
The market has changed for the better and there is a very strong upward tendency in prices, which to-day are quoted at an advance of a quarter of a cent all round. We quote dry salt clear sides, 10c; 6 lb dry salt clear ribs, 10c; 10 lb dry salt clear shoulders, 7c; 7 lb dry salt hams, 12c; 13 lb dry salt pork, $10.00.
